

Minimum Wage Act (ZDMP)

Article 1

This Act shall regulate the method of adjustment of the minimum wage, to which persons in full-time employment are entitled, the amount of the minimum wage for the work carried out in the period from 1 August 2006 until 31 July 2007, and the guaranteed minimum wage as from 1 August 2006 onwards.

The minimum wage shall be fixed on a monthly basis; a lower amount may only be paid for part-time employment and proportionally to the time worked.

Article 2

The minimum wage shall be increased every year as at 1 August corresponding to the expected yearly rise in consumer prices, adopted by the Government of the Republic of Slovenia as a basis for drafting the national budget.

The amount of the minimum wage shall be established, on the basis of the above estimate and after consulting social partners, by the minister responsible for labour and published in the Uradni list Republike Slovenije.

Article 3

Having regard to the expected rise in consumer prices in 2006 and the percentage of rise in wages agreed-upon in collective agreements concluded in public and private sectors for 2006, the amount of the minimum wage for the work carried out in the period from 1 August 2006 until 31 July 2007 shall be increased by 2% and shall amount to SIT 125,052.

Article 4

The applicable guaranteed minimum wage, used as a basis for the assessment of entitlements under other acts, shall also be increased by the percentage referred to in the preceding Article, so as to amount to SIT 56,970 as from 1 August 2006.

Article 4a

The minimum wage is exceptionally increased from 1 March and shall amount to 566,53 EUR.

The workers are entitled to get the about mentioned amount for the work carried out from 1 March.

Unofficial Translation

The exceptional increase is not interfering with the implementation of the 2 paragraph of this act .

Article 5

This Act shall enter into force on the day following its publication in the Uradni list Republike Slovenije.
